

Country: the Netherlands or home-based / Worldwide project based

Position: Procurement Specialists / permanent, full-time

Due date: a.s.a.p.

GID International B.V. is searching for procurement specialists to be engaged on a permanent, full-time basis and willing to travel for short-term and medium-term assignments.

GID is a worldwide operating procurement and purchasing firm –established in 1988– with its headquarters based in the Netherlands. GID has gained long-standing experience and worldwide reputation in the implementation of international public procurement in a broad variety of sectors. Major clients of GID include bi- and multilateral donor organizations and private sector clients, among which multinationals and international contracting companies.

Activities can be divided as follows:

- In the Netherlands or home-based:
 - procurement and purchasing activities;
 - preparation of proposals; and
- Abroad:
 - project related procurement activities for donor funded projects.

Language abilities: candidates have to be at least English speaking.

In case you are interested, you are requested to send an application letter, CV in World Bank format and contact details of at least three references who might be contacted.